

TIP TOP.

The Most Active Mining Company In Arizona.

WHAT IS BEING DONE AT MILL AND MINE.

Thousands Of Tons Of Ore Awaiting Reduction.

Full Particulars Regarding Everything Of Interest.

The Tip Top mine was located in March, 1876, by Messrs. Moore and Corning, and by them sold to the Tip Top Company in September of last year for $50,000. We have obtained the following figures so that the readers of the HERALD may intelligently follow our future reports, which will be made a special feature of the HERALD. The vein crosses Cottonwood Creek north-west and south-east, work is being prosecuted on both sides. On NORTH SIDE OF THE RAVINE. Tunnel at the head of old shaft is in 60 feet, with a well defined 12 inch vein in top, which has widened to 16 inches in bottom of shaft.

Tunnel No. 1.—In 75 feet and connected with above tunnel by a 27 foot shaft. About 160 tons of ore on the dump.

Tunnel No. 2.—In 245 feet, main incline is continued from tunnel 1. to a depth of 161 feet, which will have to be sunk 60 feet more to connect with Tunnel No. 3. Shaft No. 1, is 80 feet deep. The distance between main incline and shaft No. 1 on this level is 150 feet. About 200 tons of ore on dump.

Tunnel No. 3.—In 190 feet with a 16 inch vein the entire length, will be required to run 250 feet further to connect with main incline shaft No. 1, required to sink 40 feet to reach this tunnel. About 100 tons ore on dump.

SOUTH SIDE OF THE RAVINE. Tunnel No. 1.—In 25 feet. The ore from this tunnel was shipped by the old proprietors and averaged between seven and eight hundred dollars. Shaft 1, is down 80 feet and connects with lower tunnel.

Tunnel No. 2.—In 193 feet, 180 feet from mouth of this tunnel a shaft is being sunk to connect with tunnel No. 3. It is now down 80 feet with 40 feet more to go.

Tunnel No. 3.—In 230 feet; must run 15 feet more to connect with shaft from upper tunnel.

The above shows that the new company have run over 1,000 feet of tunnel and 400 feet of shaft with every foot of it in a well defined vein, averaging twelve inches, and will mill not less than three hundred dollars to the ton. With the ten more stamps that will be added to the present mill, and the twenty stamp mill Mr. Hoffman contemplates erecting on the east side of the Agua Fria river, such a stream of bullion will flow into San Francisco, as will completely obscure the Bonanza mines of Nevada.

THE FAY MINE. This mine was discovered by James Fay in 1876 and sold to the Tip Top Company for $5,000. Two shafts have been sunk. The ore is exceedingly rich and if continues 50 feet more it alone will justify the erection of a mill.

MILL MATTERS. The Tip Top Mill is a complete ten-stamp one, made by Prescott, Scott & Co., of San Francisco, Cal. White & Allen, of 419 California St., San Francisco, are the contractors; the price being $45,000. Water is conveyed to the mill through a flume three miles long, that cost $2,000. The road to convey ore from the mine to the mill cost nearly $1,500. The mill will consume about 10 cords of wood per day and crush 15 tons of ore. Jack Swilling has delivered about 700 cords of wood at the mill on his contract.

There are eight tanks of quick-silver on hand with more on the way. GILBERT GLEANINGS.

The contract price paid by the Tip Top Co. for work done at their mine is $12, per foot, miners supplying their own light. There are at present 16 men employed at the mine; wages, $4, per day. C. A. Carpenter, M. B. Groat and J. M. Breat owners of the Silver Palace mine have sold to the Tip Top Co., 2000 pounds of the ore from their mine for 60 per cent. of the assay. It will mill over a $1,000. The Tip Top Co. own five claims on main vein and one on the Fay. Jack W. Swilling, who owns several farms in Yavapai County, at last tired of its high taxes, has purchased a farm on the Agua Fria, but in Maricopa. Mr. J. Farley, lately superintendent of the New Coso Mine in Cal., has charge of the Tip Top. H. C. Gashwiler will have charge of the mill.

Two schools, one store and one corral, situated in Maricopa County help to do the business of Gilbert.

Chas. Platz, who has bonded several mines in this district, will, it is said, if he accepts these properties, erect a mill on Tule Creek, south-west of the Tip Top, but in Maricopa County.

...Holl for Senora oranges, apples and pomegranates. A. M. James has a fresh invoice.

Judge Tweed. Judge Tweed who has so long and honorably filled a place on the bench of this Territory, is soon to retire, and will be succeeded by Hon. Charles Silent of San Jose, California. Phoenix is the old home of the retiring judge, and we are pleased to note the general feeling of good will and confidence expressed toward him in this community. There is no one here who has a single doubt of the judges purity in office, and we can only wish for his successor an equally spotless reputation.

...Sheriff Mowry returned Thursday from a trip to the Globe district, where he went to serve an attachment on the Duryea milling company. The Citizen claims this company for Pinal county, but it is in Maricopa, not that we are proud of having such a property, but do not wish to be misrepresented in every particular, as is the habit of several Territorial papers.

...Go and see our smiling friend Goldman and buy whatever you want.

...The firm of Peralta & Perocella have disposed of their entire stock of goods and real estate in Phoenix, to A. Goldman. The latter gentleman has shown himself an enterprising business manager, and with his increased facilities, has now the largest establishment for trade in our town.

...Captain Summerhays, of Camp McDowell, arrived in town Thursday. He is here on official duty.

...Lieut. Dr. vo and W. H. Reynolds, of Camp McDowell, attended the ball last night. These gentlemen know how to enjoy a little gay relaxation and knows further that in one of Phoenix's brilliant social parties is the place to find it.

GO TO GOLDMAN'S.

If you want to buy provisions, Or your tailor needs addition, Go to Goldman's.

If you need a summer suit, Or a hat, a shoe, or boot, Go to Goldman's.

If you want some Turkey melons, Or your girl is fond of ice-cream, Go to Goldman's.

If you need a pan, or bucket, Or if your dove, you want to look it, Go to Goldman's.

If your head of old Kentucky, And your baby out of luck, Go to Goldman's.

In conclusion let me tell, That friend Goldman will not sell, The cheapest merchandise, And at the lowest price.

The Concert.

The concert given in aid of the Phoenix Union Sunday School, on Wednesday night, was an interesting and enjoyable affair. Early in the evening the auditorium was filled with an attentive and appreciative audience, and at half-past seven the curtain rose upon what proved to be one of the best entertainments of the kind ever given in a frontier town.

The concert opened with a full choir in the good old tune of Antioch, Mrs. A. M. James presiding at the organ. The music for the evening was all arranged by this accomplished lady, so our citizens may know who to thank for the excellence and tasteful execution of this part of the programme. After the opening piece, prayer was offered by a group of pretty little girls. Miss Dora Parker leading. Then followed a quartette by Messrs. W. F. McNulty, Matt Larkin, Mrs. James and Mrs. Hawkins. Longfellow's poem of Sandalphon was read by Mr. A. M. James, and was followed by its living presentation in a beautiful tableau called "The Angel of Prayer."

The first play of the evening, entitled "Beautiful for Ever," Mr. Alfred Baunister and Miss Clara Isaac taking the leading characters, and filling them very creditably, being well sustained by Mr. Omer Wiley and Miss Mollie Parker as man servant and lady's maid. This play was received by the audience with great applause.

As an interlude there was a bass solo by W. B. Steele, duet and chorus by Mrs. James and Mrs. Steele, a beautiful exercise song by seven little girls, which was the proudest presentation of the evening: a solo, very well sung, by Miss Rosilla Linville. Then followed a character song, entitled "Mortgage the Farm," which was so well rendered that it won much applause. The singers were Mrs. James, Miss Rosilla Linville, Miss Clara Isaac and Messrs. McNulty, Baunister and Larkin. The solo and chorus by Miss Mollie Parker was very prettily given and received.

The play of "Sowing the Elephant" closed the dramatic exercises. In this Dr. J. E. Wharton had the leading character, and was ably sustained by Messrs. Oliver Isaac, Wm. M. Breckenridge, Matt E. Larkin, Master H. L. Wharton, Mrs. Hawkins and Miss Flora Murray. The stage accommodations were rather small for this play, but the acting was spirited and natural throughout its performance. Breckenridge, as the darkey, and Larkin, in Irish character, could not be excelled, while Master H. L. Wharton, in the boy's part, brought down the house in his every speech.

Mrs. A. M. James' solo and chorus, "The Dream," was the best piece of music of the evening. This was followed by a laughable tableau of "Woman's Rights," and character song "Cousin Jodeliah," in which Miss Murray proved that it was possible for a Southern girl to properly imitate the New England Yankee twang. This song convulsed the house and had to be repeated. After it there was a comical duet by Mrs. Hawkins and Miss Linville and the entertainment closed with the doxology, the audience uniting in the grand old tune.

Dr. Wharton, as manager of the enterprise deserves great credit for the efficiency displayed in his department.

Taken altogether it was a very pleasant evening to the audience, and a profitable one to the treasury of the Sabbath school. It has also proven that we have talent of no mean order in our midst, and as other entertainments of the same class are asked for, we only wish they may be as good as this and we be there to hear and see—and take notes.

Washington's Birthday Hop.

The managers of the ball given last evening at the Court House have every reason to feel gratified at the complete success which attended their undertaking. The arrangements were complete in every particular. The ball room being appropriately decorated with flags, streamers and flowers. The orchestra, under the direction of Professor McNulty, rendered selections arranged expressly for this occasion. The only fault which could be found with the affair was the crowded condition of the hall. The toilets of the ladies were all in excellent taste and appropriate to the occasion. The programme was concluded by two o'clock, thus enabling the guests to retire at a reasonable hour. An elegant supper was served at midnight.

During the evening three hearty cheers were given for the birth of the SALT RIVER HERALD, and the father of our country.

Transportation. William's team arrived Tuesday, with 8000 pounds of general merchandise for E. Irvine & Co.

Sorrell came in Wednesday with 1000 pounds for Geo. Loring, comprising confectionery, glassware, tobacco and cigars; 2970 pounds for the SALT RIVER HERALD; over 1000 pounds of drugs for Thilthod & Tompson; four coils of barded wire fence for H. H. Linville, the first in the county; 2435 pounds for James, consisting of apples, nuts, figs, dried fruit, raisins and candy.

Murphy & Dennis' train left Yuma on last Saturday with 46,000 for Phoenix.

W. Jones' train left Yuma on the 14th with 3,600 pounds for Hayden's Ferry, he also brings 5,000 pounds for Camp McDowell; Buckalew's train left the following day with 40,000 for the same camp.

Irvine received yesterday 6,000 feet of lumber, from Curtis' saw mill.

Globe City Road. The road from Phoenix to Globe City is completed, and judging from the statements of a number of recent arrivals from that section of the country, it is the finest road in the Territory, not only for the light grades but the abundance of water. As soon as this road becomes known all the fighting for the rich Globe and Pioneer districts must surely go by this route.

The Stock Board on Thursday quoted Tip Top stock at $3.25.

Do you want any tin-ware? Go to A. M. James.

The receipts of the Sunday School entertainment Wednesday night amounted to $56.75.

Subscriptions taken for all papers in the United States at publishers rates at Loring's News Depot.

Divine services will be held to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday School at 2, p. m.

Go to Loring's and get one of those Picnic Cigars. Everybody smokes them.

Our boot and shoe store has secured the shoe of the prettiest girl in Prescott, to clove for a sign; it took fourteen bushels of sand to fill it.

For SALE.—Three cows and calves, cheap for cash. Inquire of Dr. Wharton.

If you have money go to Goldman's, if you are short, he will let you share provisions anyhow.

Goldman's the largest mercantile house in central Arizona, offers goods cheaper than ever.

We learn as we go to press of a stabling affray which occurred yesterday in the Mexican portion of our village.

Do you wish anything made in the tin line? A. M. James will order it done for you.
